Intervention by H.E. Ambassador Frank Büchel

Permanent Representative of Liechtenstein

Liechtenstein welcomes the distinguished delegation of Thailand and wishes to thank for the information provided in the introductory statement and in the national report.

In a constructive spirit, Liechtenstein recommends that Thailand

1. Ratify the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court.
2. Take steps towards the full and effective abolition of the death penalty, including by acceding to the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights.
3. Strengthen efforts to investigate and prosecute child trafficking and the sexual exploitation of children and ensure the rehabilitation and reintegration of child victims.
4. Combat discrimination based on gender expression and identity, as prohibited by the Gender Equality Act, including by strengthening protection for LGBTQI+ youth from bullying, harassment and discrimination, particularly in schools.

We wish Thailand a successful UPR. I thank you.
